Queen Elizabeth II

It was with the greatest of sadness that Westerham and its Town Council learned of the death of Her late Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II. We joined with the nation, and many millions throughout the world in mourning the passing of our well-loved and much respected monarch and in recognising her long life of steadfast service.

A letter expressing those thoughts was sent on behalf of all the residents of Westerham to HM King Charles III.

Following the centuries old tradition, dating from times when news was spread by word of mouth by messengers on horseback, the formal Proclamation of the Accession of King Charles was read out at the War Memorial on September 11th. For the very first time the words of 'God Save the King' were sung.

We remember with gratitude the life of devotion, duty and dedication of the late Queen: and we look forward with anticipation to the new beginnings of the reign of King Charles III.

Helen Ogden, Chairman of Westerham Town Council reading the local Proclamation on Sunday 11th September. Approximately 70 local residents attended the ceremony.
