Communication & Community Engagement Policy

Engaging for the future

Purpose

Westerham Town Council ("the Council") is committed to communicating and engaging with the communities in Westerham and Crockham Hill to take their views into account and work with them in a collaborative way for the benefit of the community.

This Policy sets out the principles for all of the Council's communication and engagement activities and outlines the plan covering the period of Council's 3 year Business Plan.

Successful engagement is a conversation not a survey – a process not an event. Engagement should be a meaningful two-way conversation that achieves visible, transparent, positive and more collaborative change.

Principles

The Council will:

- provide information in a timely manner, encourage and facilitate informed comment from residents, interested individuals and groups so that decisions reflect the needs of the community;
- ensure that channels of communication are clear and easy to access
- use a mixed media approach to include using social media, digital platforms, website, notice boards, leaflets and banners to ensure that all groups within the community have the opportunity to participate;
- review the Policy regularly to ensure that it remains appropriate and effective.
- build the trust of residents to ensure participation in consultation so that longer-term engagement is constructive.
- ensure all communications come from the office.

Putting Principles into Practice

In order to make these principles 'real', Council has drawn up a plan for both communication and engagement covering the period of the Business Plan.

The aim of the plan is to build on current activities, expand the means by which residents can interact with the Council and to reach out to other groups within the community.

The pandemic has highlighted the need to expand the channels of communication used by Council to include the greater use of digital and this policy now includes digital engagement concepts.
